The image shows three identical name card templates arranged vertically. Each template is a square with a dashed border. At the top-left corner, there is a scissors icon and the text 'Cut here'. At the top, bottom, and right sides, there are horizontal lines with the text 'Fold here'. In the center of each template is a stylized flower illustration. The top template features a blue flower with a yellow and black center. The middle template features a purple flower with a yellow and black center. The bottom template features a red flower with a yellow and black center.
